

Dear Devotees,

Pallasana village always fills the heart and soul of the visitors with happiness and calm exuded by its verdant green fields and the divine vibrations of Lord Siva at Murukkully, Okkanamkodu in Pallassana, Palakkad District.

We have great pleasure in informing you that the Jeernodharanam, Punaprathishta, Kumbhabhishekam etc., have been prescribed in accordance with Ashtamangala Prasnam by the renowned astrologers Sri. Padoor Radhakrishna Panicker, Sri Pallasana Peethambara Panicker and others. Various parihara karmas as suggested in Ashtamangala Prasna Charthu have been completed under the aegis of our temple Tanthri Brahmasri Mapranam Animangalathu Mana Srivallabhan Namboothiripad.

Now we have to take up in the right earnest the main task of Punarudharana Karmas, Punaprathishta, Kumbhabhishekam etc.

Needless to mention that your whole hearted support in making the above ventures successful is most essential and we appeal you all to contribute your might for this divine cause and take the blessings of Lord Siva in abundance. HE is penniless voluntarily but seat of all wealth. Hence HE will shower you with health, wealth and prosperity. The plan of the temple renovation project is given at page 5. The estimate of each item of contribution is also given. You may kindly inform us about the item you wish to sponsor. Organisations can also sponsor for this divine cause. Details are given for remittance of donations at page 6.

Contributions of Rs. 5,000/- and above will be displayed at the temple premises with their/ Organisation's name.

Seeing is believing ! No doubt this entire area, the temple and the tank (Punya Theertham) will become a pilgrimage centre in the near future. Once the temple is ready after renovation work, the Kumbhabhishekam notice will be published in due course of time .
